IMPERTINENCE PUNISHED.

True to his home-his country -and his God!!

We find in the New York Courier des Clats Unis an account of a curious incident which occurred at a charity fair in Paris. A young lady, Miss A-, celebrated for her beauty and her wit, presided at one of the tables. Among the throng which pressed around the fair vender of elegant timey articles, was a young gentleman of much assurance, who gazed upon the lady with offensive freedom, and affected to admire the various articles exposed for sale; but who bought nothing.

+ What will you please to buy, sir? asked Miss A ----, with a smile of peculiar meaning.

·Oh,' replied the exquisite, with a languishing look, 'what I most wish to purchase is unhappily not for sale.' · Perhaps it is,' said the lady.

· Oh, no. I dare not declare my wishes. Nevertheless,' said Miss A-, 'let me know what you wish to buy."

Well then, since you insist upon it, I should like a ringlet of your glossy black hair."

The lady manifested no embarrassment at the hold request, but with a pair of scissors clipped off one of her beautiful locks and handed it to the astonished youth, remarking that the price was five hundred francs!
